

Name: _____

Date: _____

WÔPANÂAK • PEOPLE, PLACES & KNOWLEDGE

Corn

A food plant

English topic • food and gardens

Corn has a tall stalk and long leaves.
Corn is one of the crops in Wampanoag gardens.

Look for a stalk, a leaf, and an ear of corn.

Name: _____

Date: _____

WÔPANÂAK • PEOPLE, PLACES & KNOWLEDGE

Beans

A climbing plant

English topic • food and gardens

Bean vines can climb corn stalks.
Look for the vine, leaves, and bean pods.

Trace a vine with your finger. Then color.

Name: _____

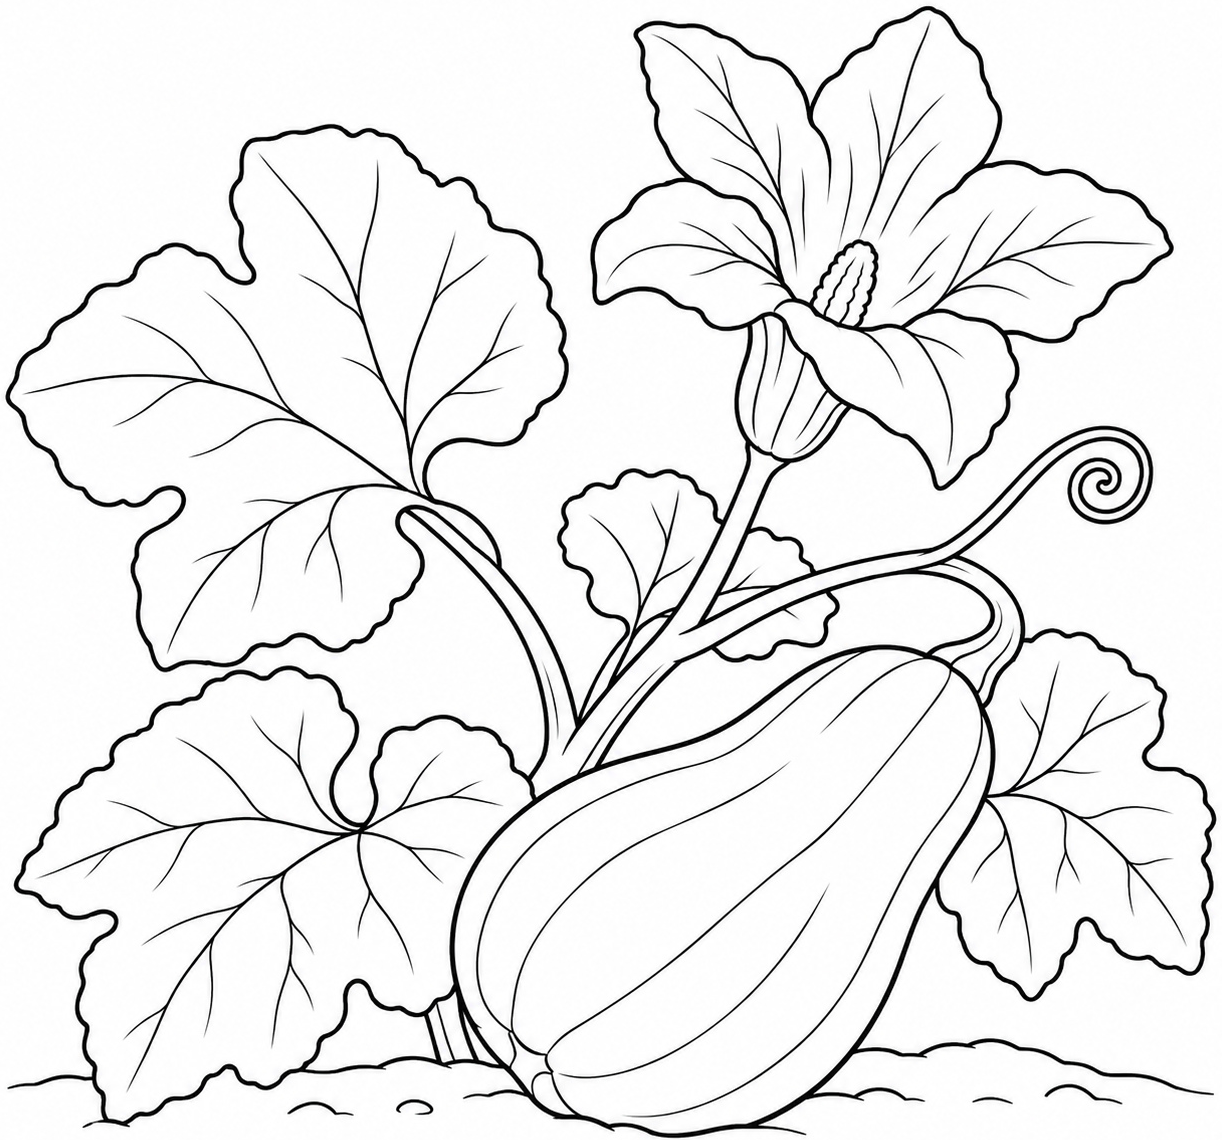

Date: _____

WÔPANÂAK • PEOPLE, PLACES & KNOWLEDGE

Squash

Leaves spread near the ground

English topic • food and gardens

Squash plants spread broad leaves across the soil.
The leaves help shade the ground.

Color the leaves and find a curling vine.

Name: _____

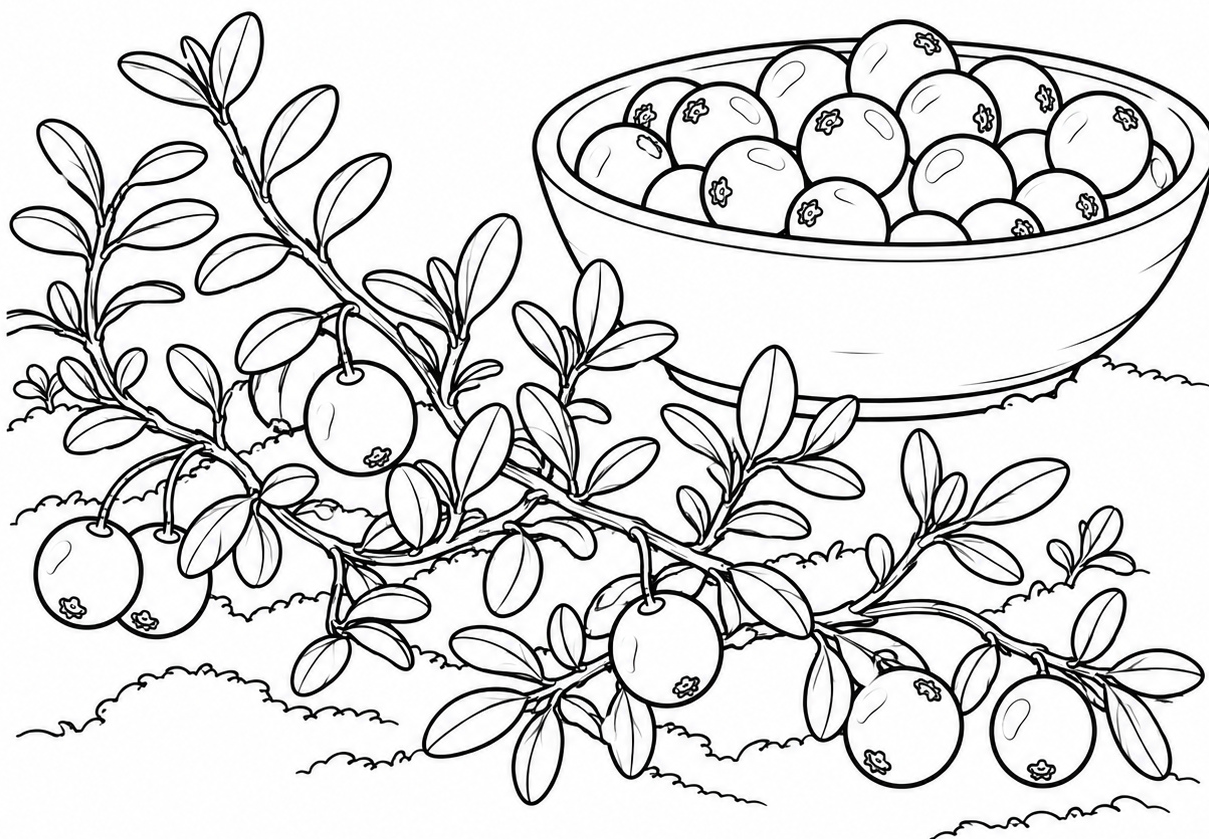

Date: _____

WÔPANÂAK • PEOPLE, PLACES & KNOWLEDGE

Cranberries

Small berries on low vines

English topic • plants

Cranberries grow on low vines.

The Aquinnah Tribe celebrates Cranberry Day.

Find the berries. Color the leaves a different color.

Name: _____

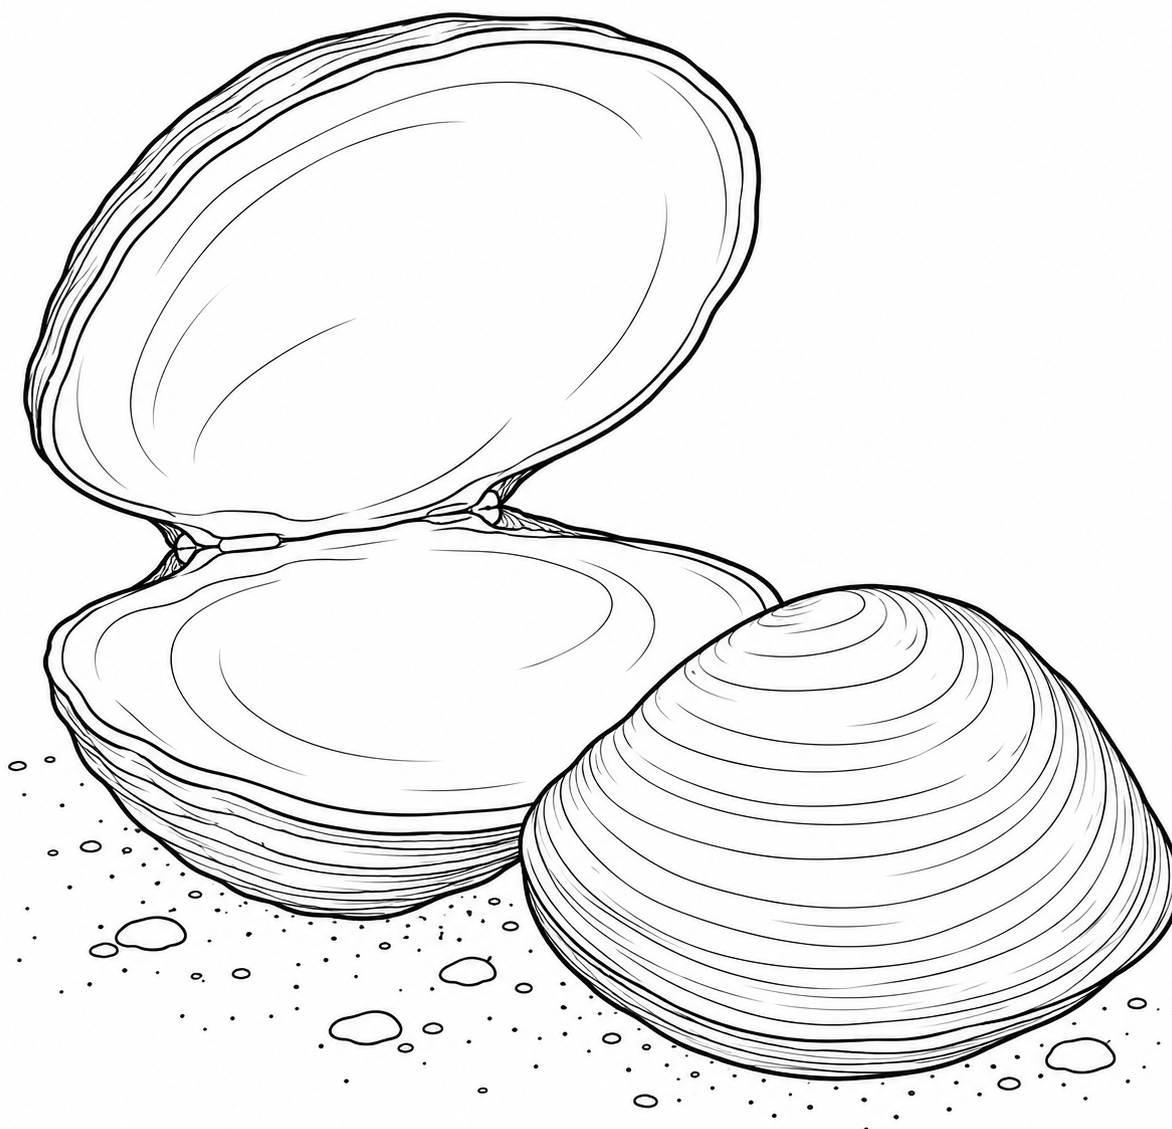

Date: _____

WÔPANÂAK • PEOPLE, PLACES & KNOWLEDGE

Quahog

A hard-shelled clam

English topic • shells and water

A quahog is a kind of clam.
Its shell can be used to make wampum beads.

Follow the curved lines on the shell.

Name: _____

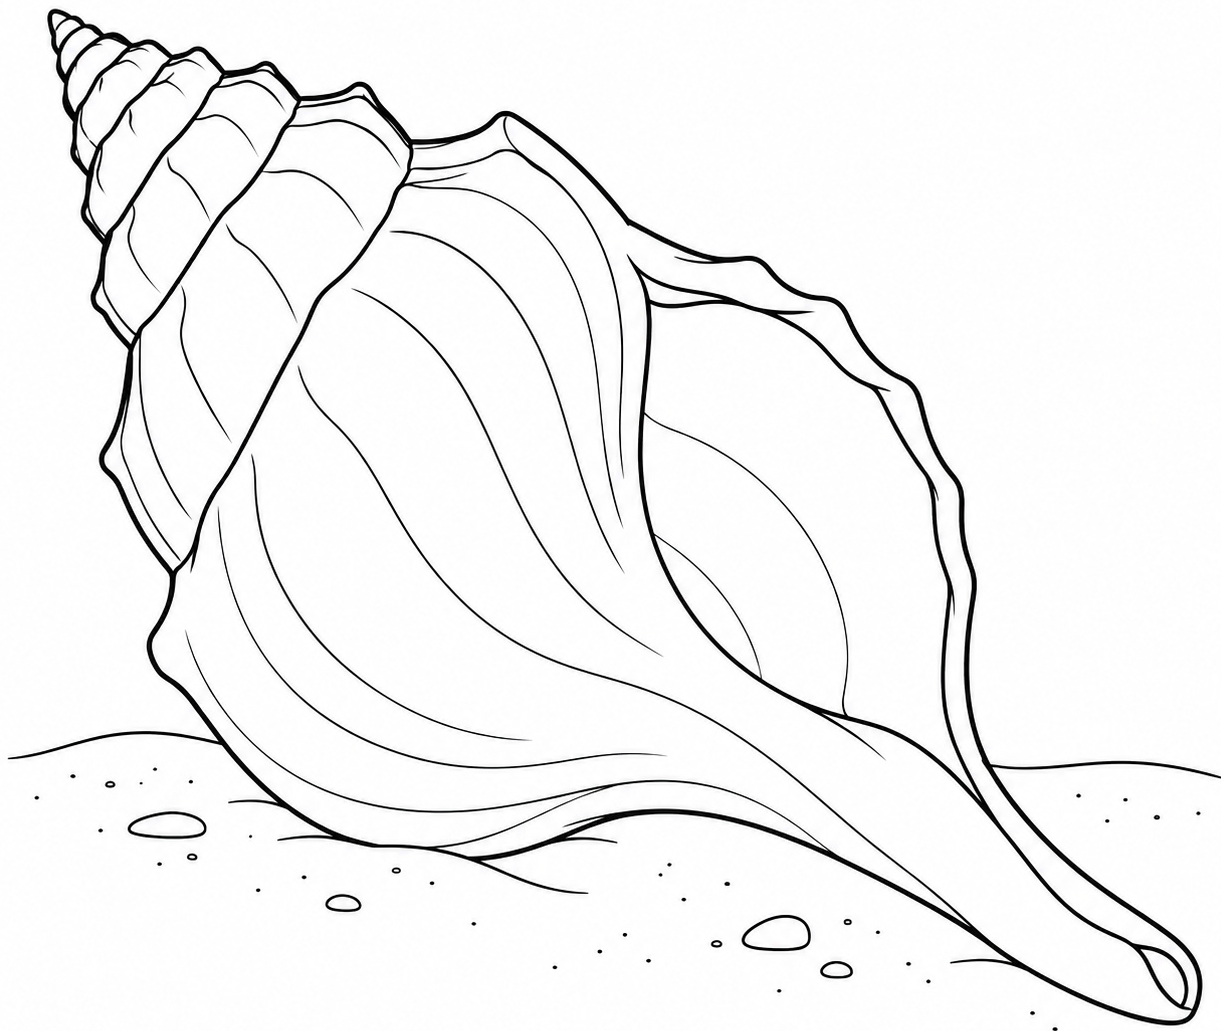

Date: _____

WÔPANÂAK • PEOPLE, PLACES & KNOWLEDGE

Whelk

A spiral shell

English topic • shells and water

A whelk is a sea snail with a spiral shell.
Whelk shell can be used for white wampum beads.

Start at the tip and follow the spiral.

Name: _____

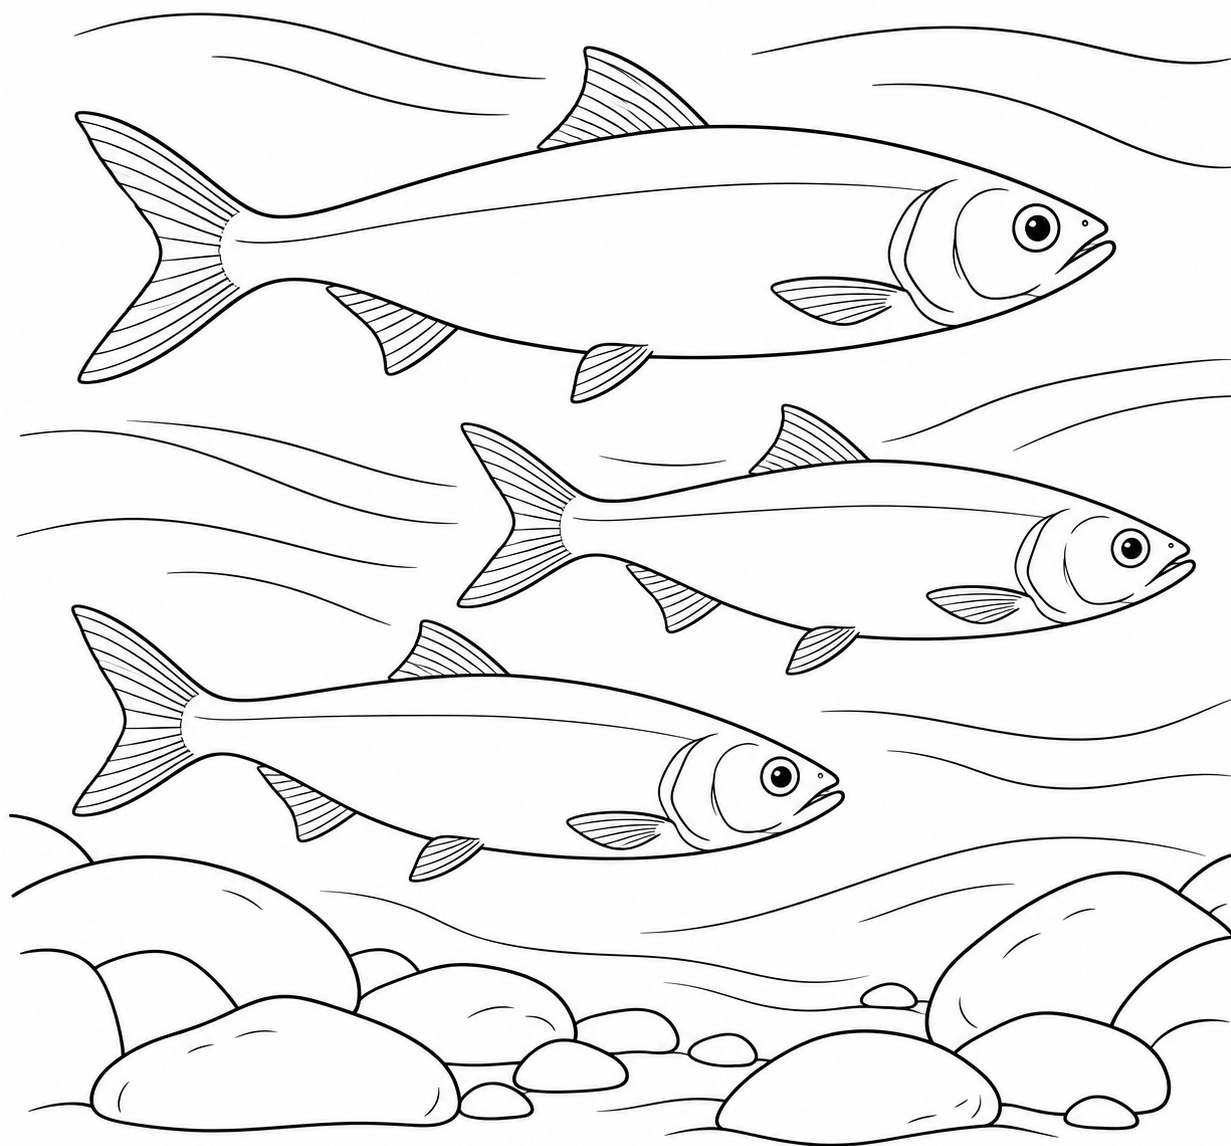

Date: _____

WÔPANÂAK • PEOPLE, PLACES & KNOWLEDGE

Herring

A fish that travels between waters

English topic • local waterways

River herring travel into fresh water to lay eggs.
Herring have long been important to Wampanoag communities.

Find the fins, gills, eye, and tail.

Name: _____

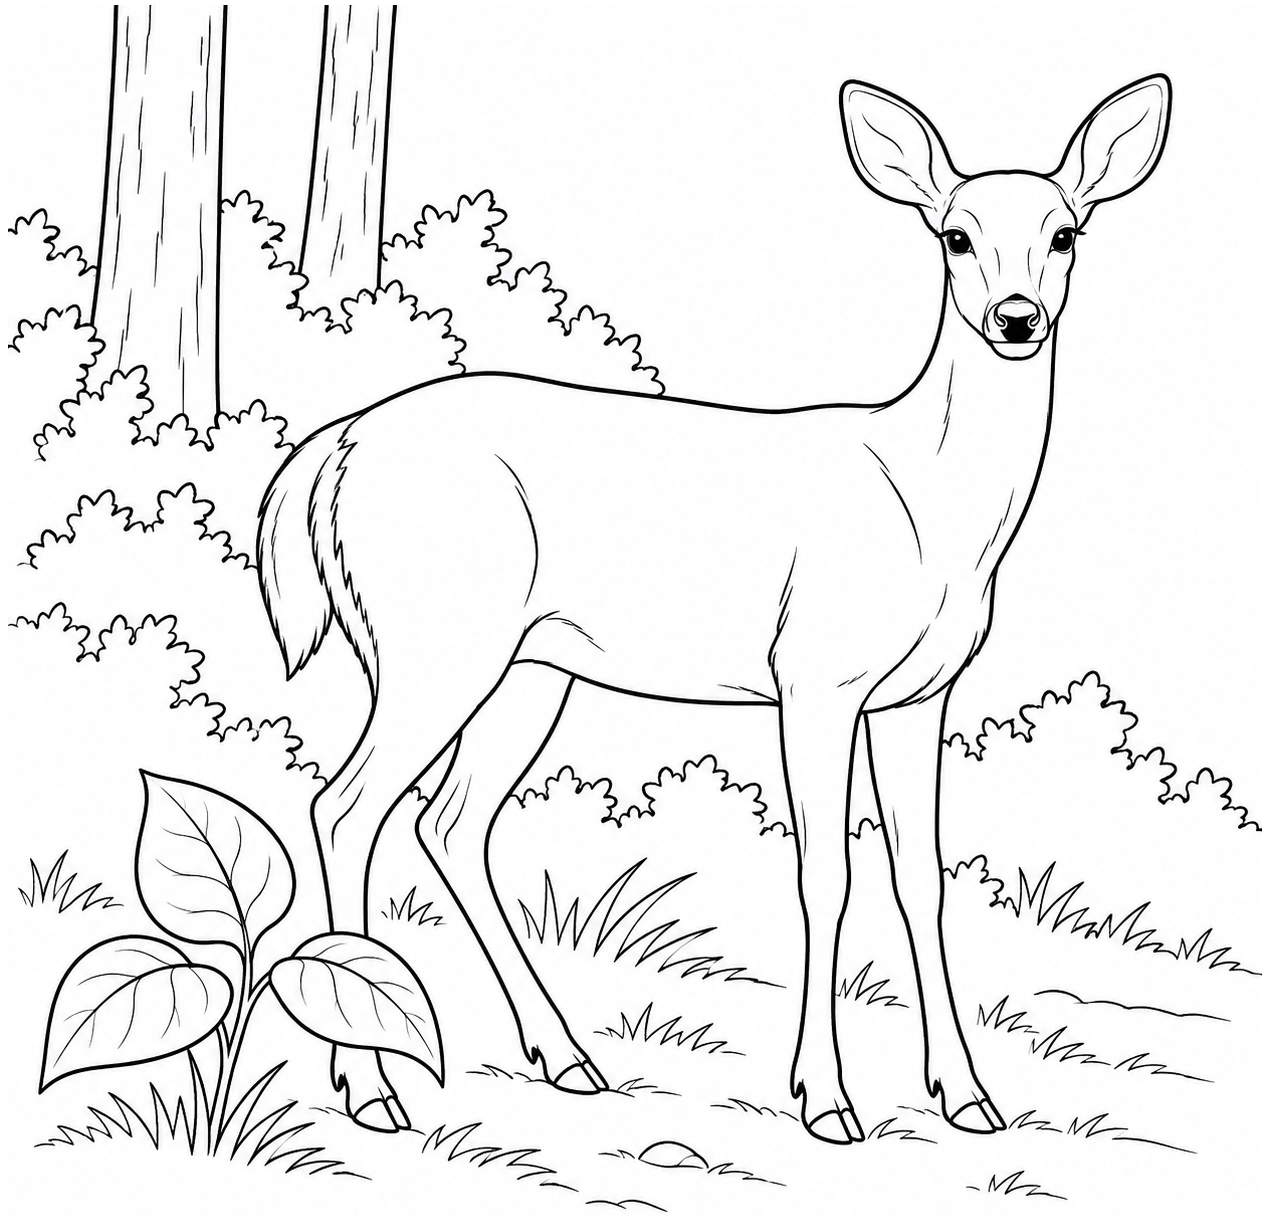

Date: _____

WÔPANÂAK • PEOPLE, PLACES & KNOWLEDGE

White-tailed deer

A woodland animal

English topic • habitats

A deer has long legs and hooves.
Woodlands provide places to feed and rest.

Find the hooves and ears.

Name: _____

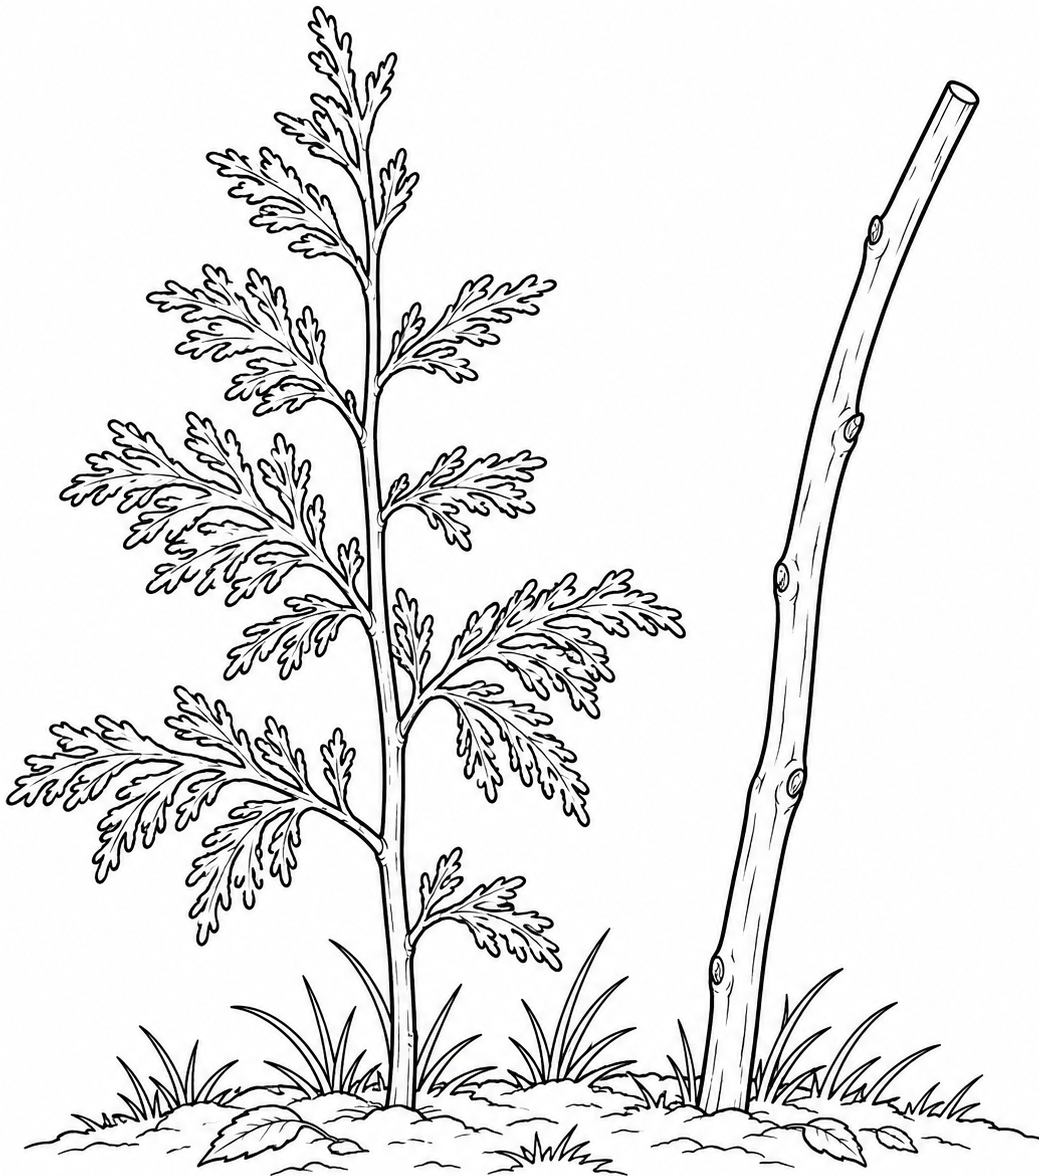

Date: _____

WÔPANÂAK • PEOPLE, PLACES & KNOWLEDGE

Cedar saplings

Young trees bend

English topic • building materials

A sapling is a young tree.

Cedar saplings can form the curved frame of a wetu.

Find the trunk and the branches.

Name: _____

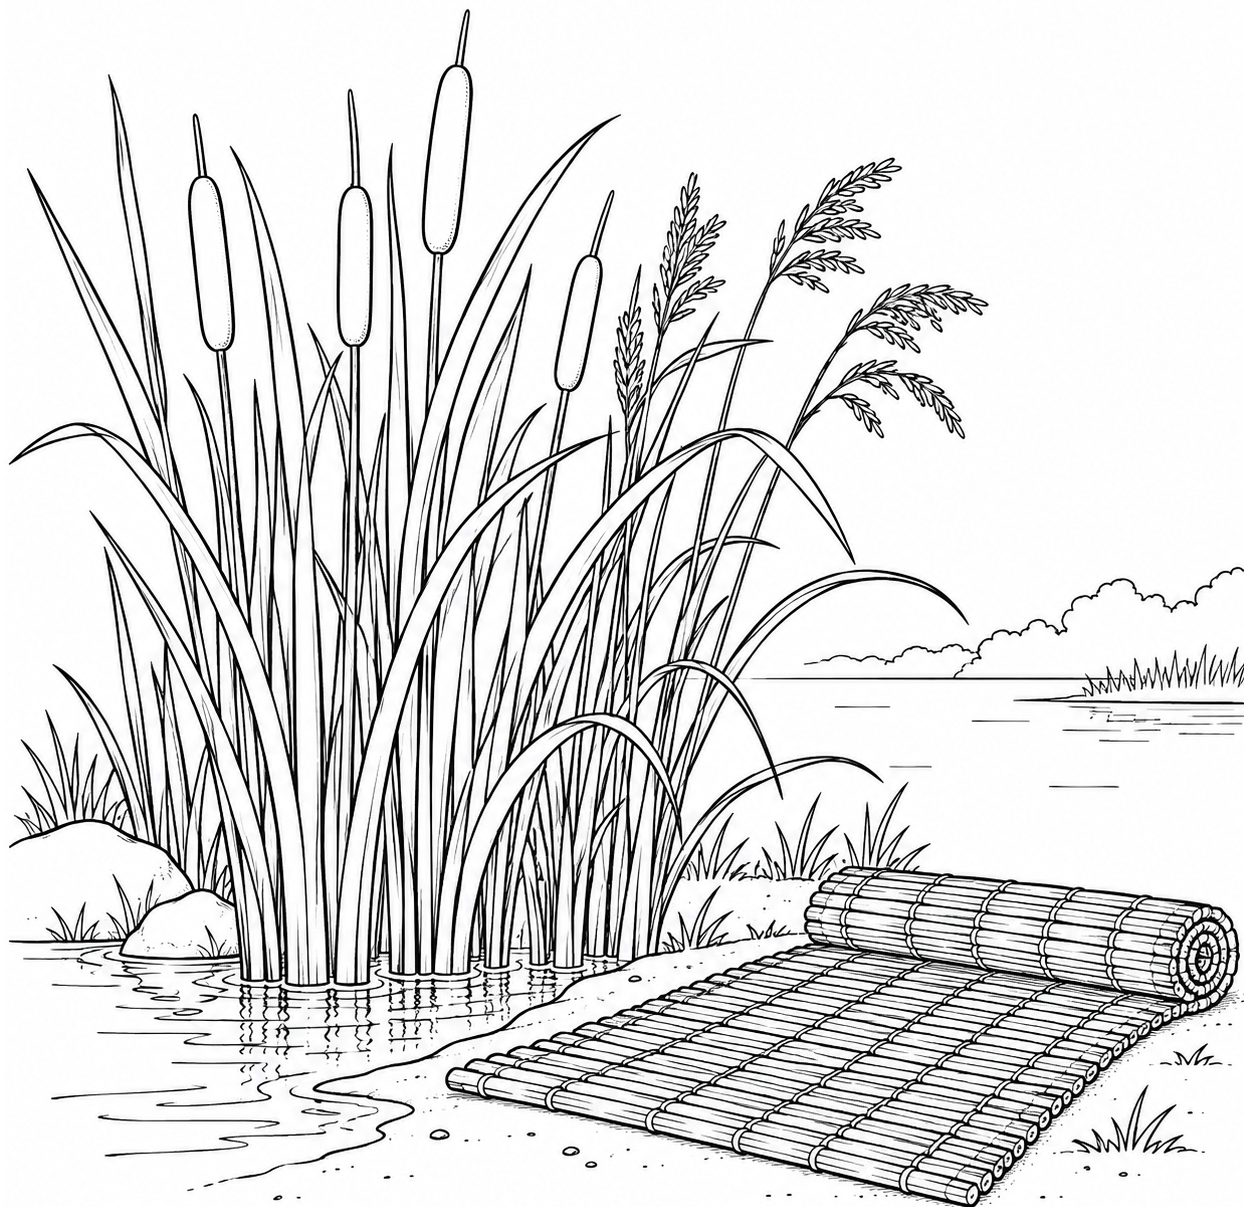

Date: _____

WÔPANÂAK • PEOPLE, PLACES & KNOWLEDGE

Reeds

Wetland plants

English topic • building materials

Tall wetland plants can be woven into mats.
Mats can help cover a traditional Wampanoag home.

Color the stalks and the water.