

Name: _____

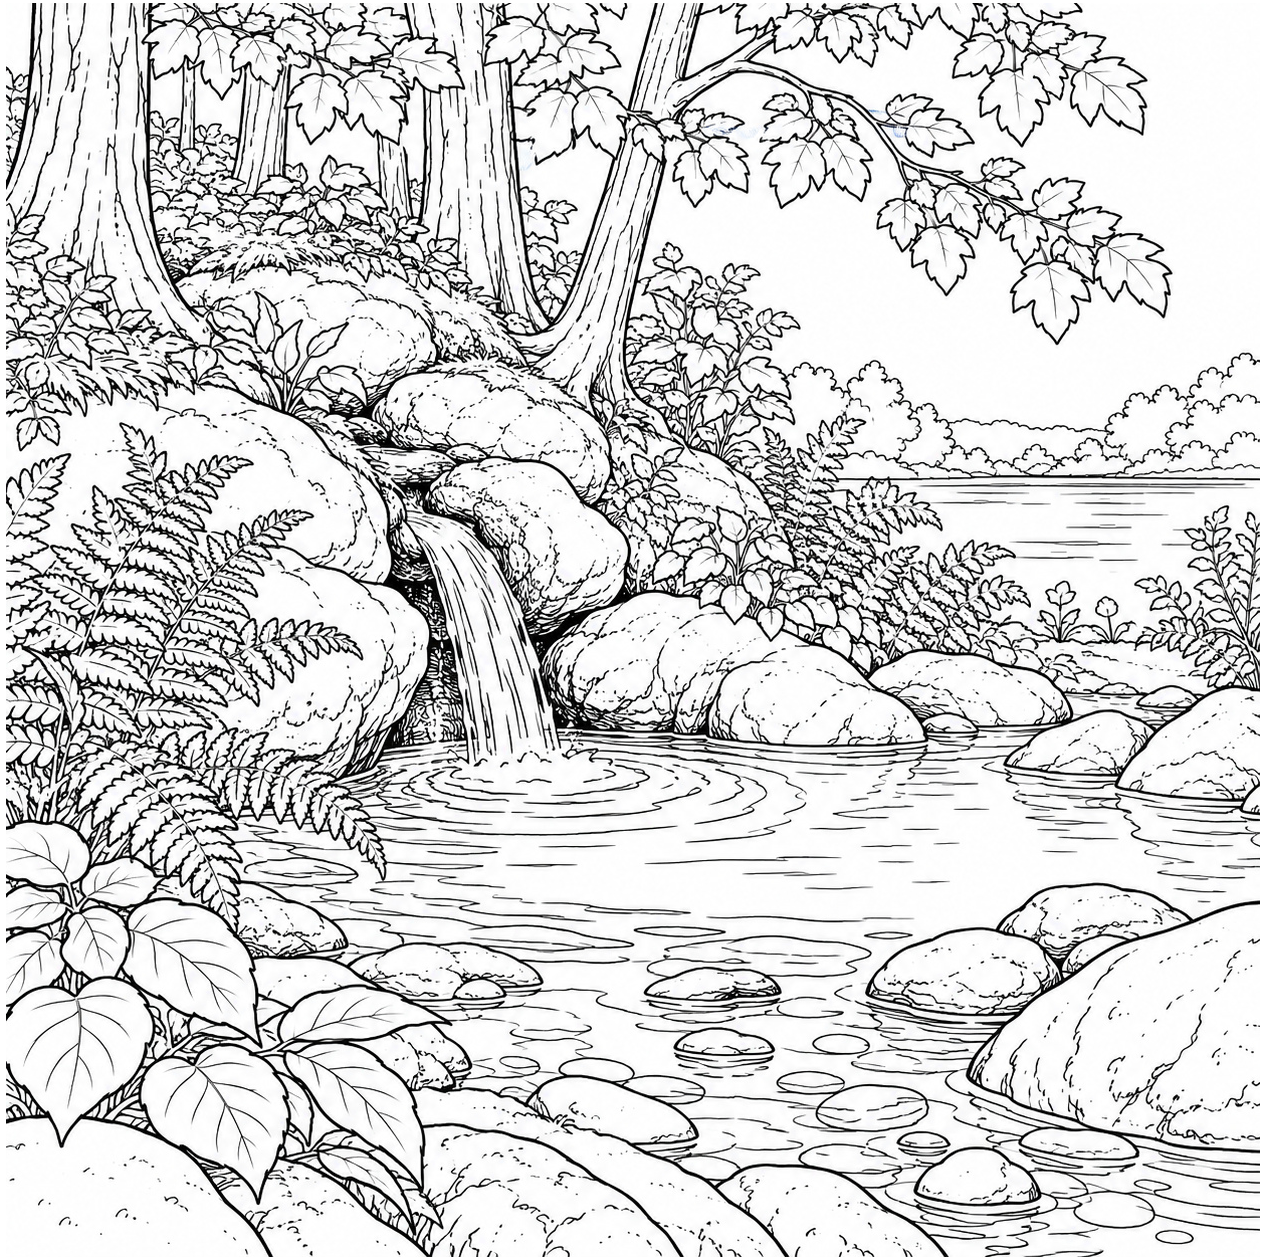

Date: _____

WÔPANÂAK • PEOPLE, PLACES & KNOWLEDGE

Ahshum8ut

Fresh water spring place

Ashumet • a Wôpanâak place name

Illustrative landscape; this is not a map or an exact view.

This name connects a place with fresh water.

A spring is a place where groundwater reaches the surface.

Find the small flow of water.

Name: _____

Date: _____

WÔPANÂAK • PEOPLE, PLACES & KNOWLEDGE

Weeqay8ut

Place of light

Waquoit • a Wôpanâak place name

Illustrative landscape; this is not a map or an exact view.

A place name can help us notice a landscape.

This name is connected with light.

Color the sky and the calm water.

Name: _____

Date: _____

WÔPANÂAK • PEOPLE, PLACES & KNOWLEDGE

Mônâmaskayut

Abundant grass and herb place

Monamascoy • a Wôpanâak place name

Illustrative landscape; this is not a map or an exact view.

This name calls attention to plants.
Look for grasses growing beside the water.

Use several greens for different plants.

Name: _____

Date: _____

WÔPANÂAK • PEOPLE, PLACES & KNOWLEDGE

Kut8ut

Talking place

Cotuit • a Wôpanâak place name

An imagined contemporary family; Wampanoag families have varied appearances.

WLRP connects this name with a possible meeting place.

Talking and listening help people share ideas.

Find people who are listening.

Name: _____

Date: _____

WÔPANÂAK • PEOPLE, PLACES & KNOWLEDGE

Mâsach8sut

Place of the foothill

Massachusetts • a Wôpanâak place name

Illustrative landscape; this is not a map or an exact view.

WLRP says this name probably refers to the Blue Hills.

A foothill is a smaller hill near higher land.

Color the nearer hills differently from the farther hills.

Name: _____

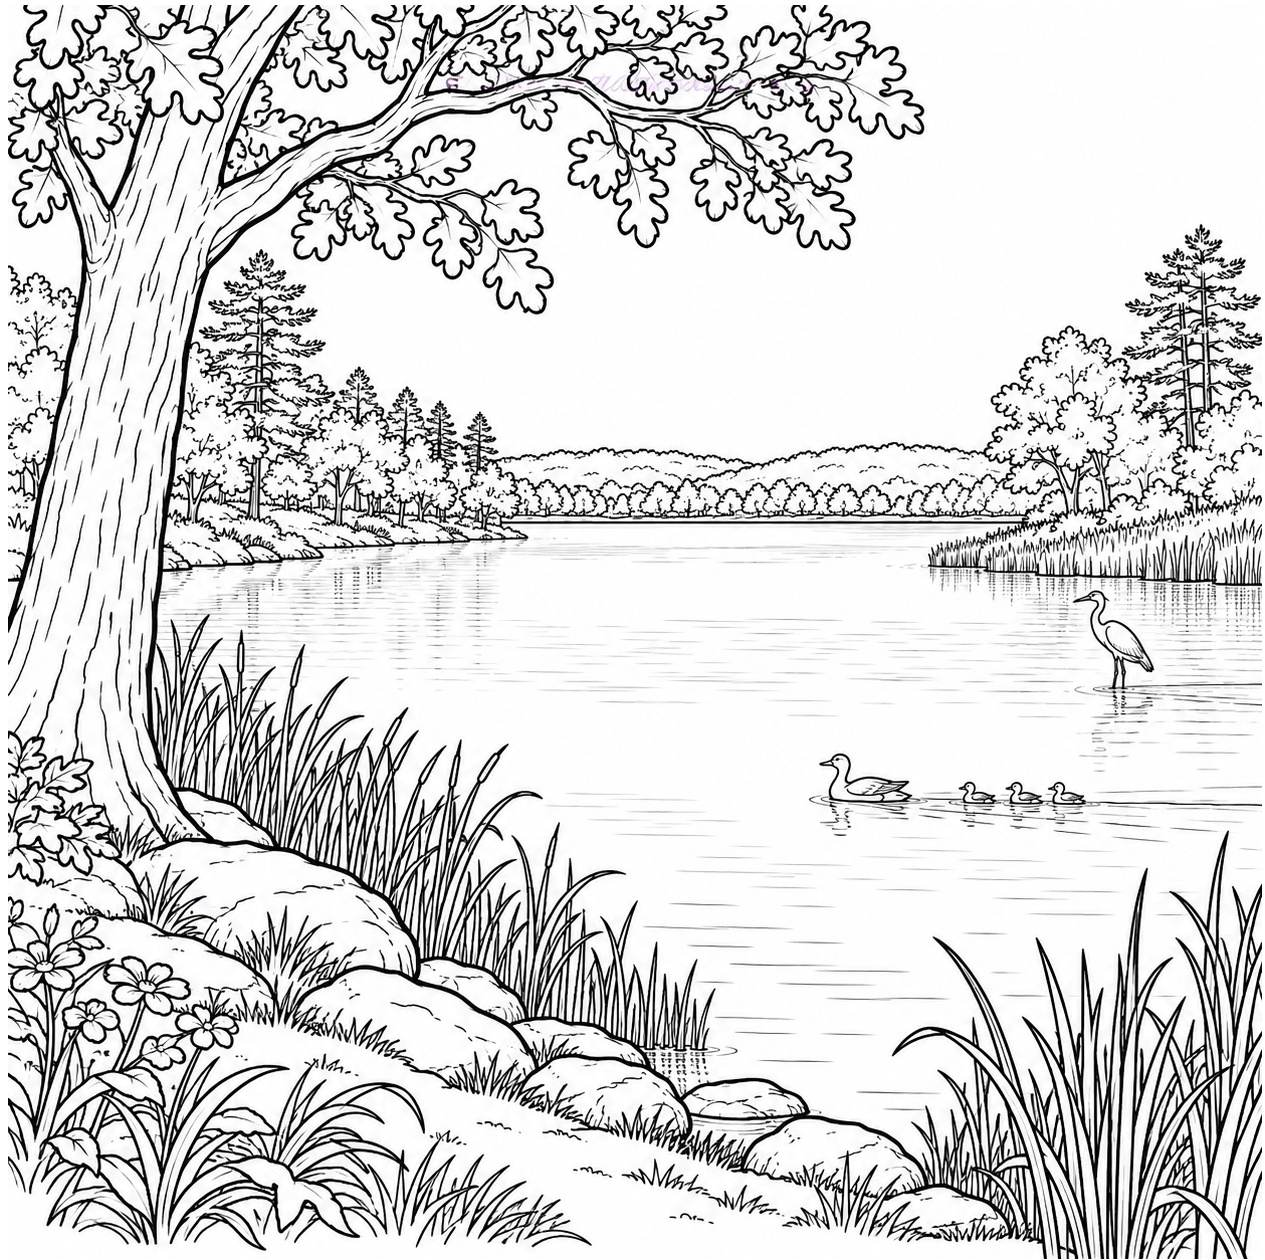

Date: _____

WÔPANÂAK • PEOPLE, PLACES & KNOWLEDGE

Kehtashimet

Place of a great spring

Lake Tashmoo • a Wampanoag place name

Illustrative landscape; this is not a map or an exact view.

The Aquinnah Tribe connects this name with a spring.

Place names can carry knowledge about water.

Find the pond edge and the trees.

Name: _____

Date: _____

WÔPANÂAK • PEOPLE, PLACES & KNOWLEDGE

Winnetukqet

Place of good river

Edgartown Great Pond • a Wampanoag place name

Illustrative landscape; this is not a map or an exact view.

The Aquinnah Tribe records this name for the pond area.

Land and water can be remembered in place names.

Follow the shape of the water with your finger.

Name: _____

Date: _____

WÔPANÂAK • PEOPLE, PLACES & KNOWLEDGE

Epenow

A Wampanoag story of return

A person from Noepe • early 1600s

Imagined historical illustration; not a documented likeness or exact scene.

English sailors kidnapped Epenow in 1611.
He later returned to Noepe and escaped with his family's help.

Imagine a question you would ask about his return.

Name: _____

Date: _____

WÔPANÂAK • PEOPLE, PLACES & KNOWLEDGE

Caleb Cheeshahteaumuck

A Wampanoag scholar

Harvard graduate • 1665

Imagined historical illustration; not a documented likeness or exact scene.

Caleb came from Noepe.

He became Harvard's first Native American graduate in 1665.

Find the tools he could use to read and write.

Name: _____

Date: _____

WÔPANÂAK • PEOPLE, PLACES & KNOWLEDGE

Learning Wôpanâak

Language connects generations

Wampanoag language learning today

An imagined contemporary family; Wampanoag families have varied appearances.

Wampanoag people are reclaiming their language.

Adults and children help keep it growing.

Find a person teaching and a person learning.