

Native nations and homelands

c. 1000–1600 CE | Grade 2 · Read & notice

Words to know

community — people connected by a place or something they share

trade — exchange goods or services

tradition — knowledge or practices passed between generations

Look closely

Aquinnah cliffs today, part of Wampanoag homelands. This modern photograph does not show the event described.

Read the story

Wampanoag, Massachusetts, Nipmuc, and Nauset communities lived in this region. People grew food, fished, and traded. Each community had its own story. Native people still live here today.

Think, talk, and show evidence

1. What happened in this reading? Tell one fact.
2. Who or what is this reading mostly about?
3. Choose a word from the word bank. Explain it in your own words.
4. Look at the picture and its caption. What does it help you notice? Is it from the time of the event?

Follow-up reading: Gosnold's voyage

1602

Bartholomew Gosnold sailed from England. He reached places Native people already knew. His crew used the names Cape Cod and Martha's Vineyard. They saw many cod fish. Naming land did not make it empty.

How are the two readings alike or different? Tell a partner one connection. Which event came first?

Original classroom adaptation. Suggested reading levels are instructional choices, not standardized readability certifications. Use professional judgment and learner feedback.

ELA practice: RI.2.1: ask and answer questions; RI.2.2: identify a main topic; RI.2.7: use images and words; W.2.2 and SL.2.1: explain and discuss.

These tasks support selected skills in the Massachusetts 2017 ELA framework; they do not establish mastery of an entire standard.

Answer guidance

Factual anchor: Wampanoag, Massachusett, Nipmuc, and Nauset communities lived in this region. People grew food, fished, and traded. Each community had its own story. Native people still live here today. These centuries are a window into much longer histories, not a beginning date for these peoples. Modern state boundaries cannot fully show Indigenous homelands and relationships.

Accept accurate main ideas and explanations supported by the text. Vocabulary meanings are in the opening word bank. For picture questions, use the caption and credit below; distinguish what is visible from what is inferred. For comparison, accept a specific connection supported by both readings. Do not require personal accounts of trauma.
