Follow-up reading: Abigail Adams asks to be remembered

March 31, 1776

Abigail Adams wrote to her husband John. She asked him to consider women when new laws were made. Women did important work but lacked many rights. Her letter helps us hear a woman's voice.

How are the two readings alike or different? Tell a partner one connection. Which event came first?

Answer guidance

Factual anchor: George Washington’s army pressured British forces in Boston. Henry Knox helped bring cannon from Fort Ticonderoga. The Americans fortified Dorchester Heights. British troops and many Loyalists then left by sea. Evacuation resulted from months of siege, supplies, geography, and military planning. It was not the end of the Revolutionary War. Different residents experienced departure and victory differently.

Accept accurate main ideas and explanations supported by the text. Vocabulary meanings are in the opening word bank. For picture questions, use the caption and credit below; distinguish what is visible from what is inferred. For comparison, accept a specific connection supported by both readings. Do not require personal accounts of trauma.
