Look closely

Modern topic illustration created for Massachusetts History Explorers. It is not a historical artifact.

Read the story

Martha's Vineyard Public Charter School opened in 1996. Students and adults built a learning community in West Tisbury. The school is part of a much longer history of the island and its land.

Think, talk, and show evidence

1. What happened in this reading? Tell one fact.
2. Who or what is this reading mostly about?
3. Choose a word from the word bank. Explain it in your own words.
4. Look at the picture and its caption. What does it help you notice? Is it from the time of the event?

Follow-up reading: Loss and response after September 11

September 11, 2001

Two planes used in the September 11 attacks left Boston's Logan Airport. Many people died in the attacks. Families and communities mourned. People worked to help others and remember those who were lost.

How are the two readings alike or different? Tell a partner one connection. Which event came first?

Teacher guide & source trail

Original classroom adaptation. Suggested reading levels are instructional choices, not standardized readability certifications. Use professional judgment and learner feedback.

ELA practice: RI.2.1: ask and answer questions; RI.2.2: identify a main topic; RI.2.7: use images and words; W.2.2 and SL.2.1: explain and discuss.

These tasks support selected skills in the Massachusetts 2017 ELA framework; they do not establish mastery of an entire standard.

Answer guidance

Factual anchor: Martha's Vineyard Public Charter School opened in 1996. Students and adults built a learning community in West Tisbury. The school is part of a much longer history of the island and its land. A school's opening date is not the beginning of the place's story. Investigate school records alongside Wampanoag history and documented land research. Do not invent a parcel's earlier ownership.

Accept accurate main ideas and explanations supported by the text. Vocabulary meanings are in the opening word bank. For picture questions, use the caption and credit below; distinguish what is visible from what is inferred. For comparison, accept a specific connection supported by both readings. Do not require personal accounts of trauma.
