Read the story

Massachusetts became the first U.S. state where same-sex couples could legally marry. Families celebrated having their relationships recognized. The change followed a state court decision.

Goodridge v. Department of Public Health was decided in 2003; marriages began in 2004. Distinguish a ruling from implementation. Discuss equal treatment respectfully, including classmates from many family structures.

Think, talk, and show evidence

1. State the main idea. Support it with two details from the reading.
2. Explain a change or challenge described in the text. Which words support your answer?
3. Use one vocabulary word in a new sentence about this event.
4. What can the image and caption help explain? What can they not tell you?

Follow-up reading: The Red Sox win the World Series

2004

The Boston Red Sox won the World Series for the first time since 1918. Fans celebrated after an eighty-six-year wait. Sports can bring people together and become part of a place's shared memory.

The Curse of the Bambino was a popular story, not a scientific explanation for results. Separate metaphor and fan traditions from records of games, players, and decisions.

Compare the two readings. Explain one similarity or difference using a detail from each. Their order does not prove that one caused the other.
