Read the story

The Boston Red Sox won the World Series for the first time since 1918. Fans celebrated after an eighty-six-year wait. Sports can bring people together and become part of a place's shared memory.

Think, talk, and show evidence

1. What happened in this reading? Tell one fact.
2. Who or what is this reading mostly about?
3. Choose a word from the word bank. Explain it in your own words.
4. Look at the picture and its caption. What does it help you notice? Is it from the time of the event?

Follow-up reading: Massachusetts health-care reform

2006

Governor Mitt Romney signed a law intended to expand health insurance coverage. The reform changed how many Massachusetts residents obtained insurance. It became influential in later national debate.

How are the two readings alike or different? Tell a partner one connection. Which event came first?

Original classroom adaptation. Suggested reading levels are instructional choices, not standardized readability certifications. Use professional judgment and learner feedback.

ELA practice: RI.2.1: ask and answer questions; RI.2.2: identify a main topic; RI.2.7: use images and words; W.2.2 and SL.2.1: explain and discuss.

These tasks support selected skills in the Massachusetts 2017 ELA framework; they do not establish mastery of an entire standard.

Answer guidance

Factual anchor: The Boston Red Sox won the World Series for the first time since 1918. Fans celebrated after an eighty-six-year wait. Sports can bring people together and become part of a place's shared memory. The Curse of the Bambino was a popular story, not a scientific explanation for results. Separate metaphor and fan traditions from records of games, players, and decisions.

Accept accurate main ideas and explanations supported by the text. Vocabulary meanings are in the opening word bank. For picture questions, use the caption and credit below; distinguish what is visible from what is inferred. For comparison, accept a specific connection supported by both readings. Do not require personal accounts of trauma.
