Read the story

Massachusetts voters approved Question 4, changing state rules for adult cannabis use. This did not make cannabis legal for children. The lesson is about how voters decide a proposed law.

The 2016 vote was followed by implementation and later changes. State and federal law differ. This historical account provides no current legal or health advice and does not encourage substance use.

Think, talk, and show evidence

1. State the main idea. Support it with two details from the reading.
2. Explain a change or challenge described in the text. Which words support your answer?
3. Use one vocabulary word in a new sentence about this event.
4. What can the image and caption help explain? What can they not tell you?

Follow-up reading: The COVID-19 pandemic

2020

COVID-19 changed daily life in Massachusetts. Schools and workplaces changed routines. People became sick, families faced loss, and many workers cared for others. Communities found ways to stay connected.

A Boston Biogen conference became an important early transmission event. The pandemic also revealed differences in risk, resources, and access. This reading is historical; current health guidance belongs to public-health professionals.

Compare the two readings. Explain one similarity or difference using a detail from each. Their order does not prove that one caused the other.
